

Features of NRDAR Information Service

The NRDAR Information Service is available on a subscription basis to all parties interested in natural resource damage liability, assessment, restoration and related issues arising under US and European laws, including:

- Industrial companies;
- Business and industry associations;
- Law firms;
- Consulting firms;
- Financial institutions and accounting firms;
- Insurers and re-insurers;
- Government bodies;
- Research organizations;
- Solo practitioners; and
- Others.

The NRDAR Information Services saves considerable time and resources by consolidating in one place information on the broad range of legal, technical, economic, regulatory and policy aspects of this environmental arena. Information provided via the NRDAR Information Service is described below.

Service	Description
Email Alerts	Alerts on breaking news, key developments and issues, as they occur, including major case/site updates, key meetings and conferences, judicial decisions, regulatory requirements, methodological approaches and more
NRDAR Bulletins	Bulletins are provided several times a year highlighting diverse policy and practice issues in the US, Europe and elsewhere. Each Bulletin features brief discussion of a selected practice issue and selected government authority.
Website Access	Access to the password-protected www.NRDAR.com website, which includes selected reference information (in addition to Alerts and Bulletins)

Subscription Terms

Annual subscriptions to the NRDAR Information Service may be initiated at any time during the calendar year. Subscription fees are based upon number of users. To activate your subscription, a single payment covering the 12 month fee may be made (via credit/debit card or electronic funds transfer), or payments may be made quarterly (by credit/debit card). Subscriptions will automatically renew unless prior notice is received.
